The Heritage Barrie Committee met and discussed the following:

COMMITTEE BUDGET UPDATE

Tammie Maynard, Legislative Coordinator, provided an update concerning the Committee's budget. The Committee reviewed their 2025 budget and will allocate $5,000.00 towards printing of historic neighbourhood guides and $10,000.00 towards heritage plaques for the bulk designation properties.

The Committee approved an expenditure from the Heritage Barrie Committee budget for the early-bird registration fees (approximately $700.00) for two members to attend the 2025 Ontario Heritage Conference in Prince Edward County in June 2025. The Committee member who was in attendance attending the conference acknowledged and agreed that they are responsible for all other costs associated with the conference including, but not limited to, accommodation, mileage and meals, to have funds available for other committee initiatives. The Committee members agreed that the members attending the conference may have additional costs considered if the committee has a budget to support it in May and June.

STATUS OF MUNICIPAL HERITAGE REGISTER

This matter was deferred to the next meeting.

DEVELOPMENT APPLICATIONS UNDER REVIEW

This matter was deferred to the next meeting.

2025 WORK PLAN

The Committee reviewed their 2025 Work Plan, then held a brainstorming session to compile ideas for the plan. The Committee organized its workplan into three categories, including Heritage Awards, Education and Awareness, and Heritage Conservation. Chair, Councillor, AM. Kungl will update the 2025 Work Plan, and she will forward a copy to the Committee members for their review and feedback.

ADJOURNMENT

The meeting adjourned at 8:30 p.m.
